KURUVILA JACOB INITIATIVE FOR PROMOTING EXCELLENCE IN SCHOOL EDUCATION

EDUCATION LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

2018-2019

BATCH – XI

"The purpose of education is to bring out the best in all students"

-K. Kuruvila Jacob

As India emerges as an important global player, her vast and prodigious human resources need to be further harnessed through responsible and meaningful education in order to achieve the goals of an equitable and just society in an ever changing world. Educational leaders are faced with the demands of a rapidly changing global environment. The task of preparing future citizens is becoming increasingly complex and daunting and requires the skills of leadership and the attitude for lifelong learning.

The contribution of Principals, Vice-Principals and Senior Teachers towards this transformation is at once significant and enormous.

The Kuruvila Jacob Initiative for Promoting Excellence in School Education

Spelling out its objective in the name itself, the eponymous Initiative is in honour of the great educationist and humanist, and is launched and implemented by his students from Madras Christian College High School.

The Initiative is committed to

- Creating Leaders in the field of education
- Improving performance practices, capabilities and results in schools
- Facilitating communication and sharing of best practices and information among schools
- Guiding schools in their planning and opportunities for learning
- Providing the skills, knowledge and attitudes necessary for school principals, senior teachers and administrators to shape the future of the schools and students.

A unique PG Education Leadership Programme

As part of the Kuruvila Jacob Initiative, for the Elventh year running, Spirit of Leadership (SOL), New Delhi brings you the Education Leadership Programme (ELP). This is a unique programme developed by Centre for Education Management and Development (CEMD), New Delhi a not-for-profit institution committed to quality education achieved by developing institutions and leaders, based on educational courses conducted at Universities of Washington and Harvard, USA. Since its inaugural offer in 1996, this programme has benefited 39 batches, in all comprising 1180 participants from private and government schools across the country.

The Features

- One-year open-learning Post-graduate Diploma
- Interactive, Participatory and Experiential learning process
- 3 Courses distributed over twelve months, delivered through six days face to face contact programmes followed by Practicum and Portfolio
- Course evaluated by Queen's University, Canada to certify the course as equivalent to international standards

Who should participate

Correspondents, School Management Committee Members, Principals, Vice-Principals, Co-ordinators and Senior Teachers on the threshold of elevation to positions of authority and responsibility, who are committed to enhancing their personal performance levels and capable of transferring their knowledge and skills to others in order to sustain the institutions that they represent.

The programme addresses the needs and concerns of schools governed by all Education Boards.

Tangible Benefits

The Programme offers real benefits to participants through

- Knowledge Assessment
- Assignments submitted at the end of each contact session
- Simulation presentations made by participants

Contact Sessions

These sessions are based on experiential and collaborative learning through participatory processes. Emphasis on consensus encourages divergent and opposing viewpoints.

Course Study Material

Designed for self-study, this includes state-of-the-art concepts in education and management.

Assignments

These are tasks designed to help participants assimilate new knowledge, gain clarity of knowledge content and effectively apply their learning in the workplace.

Practicum

This is designed to reinforce the process of transfer of learning to the workplace.

The Programme also ensures that the institutions absorb and integrate the initiatives through

- Participants' presentations at grounding
- Portfolio submissions

Content at a glance

The Programme focuses on three crucial areas of leadership, in the shape of three modules, each dealing with significant, outcome-oriented factors.

- Facilitative Leadership
- Instructional Leadership
- Institutional Leadership

The Faculty

Experienced Professionals from multi disciplinary backgrounds from the fields of Education, Management, Psychology, Curriculum and Pedagogy, Information Technology and Research form the faculty.
